ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I could never give enough thanks to the following people: Dr. Nicholas Colangelo, who guided me through this process and my many moods with kindness, insight, and a sustained confidence in my ability; Dr. Carolyn Wanat, who always found the time for all the McLeods; the rest of my dissertation committee, Dr. Dennis Harper, Dr. David Jepsen, and Dr. Vilia Tarvydas, for their continued suggestions and support; Dr. Marijane Fall, a constant mentor who showed me the power of play; my parents, Dr. Hugh and Barbara Jones, who would and do give me the world; Allyson and Kate Reynolds, who played with Isabel day after day, week after week, month after month, while I wrote; my daughter, Isabel, who kept me laughing and also watched “Pooh” a few too many times; and my husband, Scott for his endless enthusiasm, patience, and love.
